

Stirling Capital Management, LLC Announces the Addition of Holly Balchan to their Business Development Team

September 6th, 2009 – Stirling Capital Management LLC is pleased to announce that Holly Balchan has joined the company as a Business Development Consultant. Holly will work closely with Stirling Capital's existing Management team to continue the rapid growth experienced over the past six months.

According to Ed Forbes, President of Stirling Capital, "Holly brings to the table a sound reputation in the ARM Industry as well as a diverse network of business relationships that includes decision makers at the top financial institutions and debt buyers. Balchan's diverse ARM Industry background will enable her to significantly contribute to Stirling Capital's portfolio brokerage business."

A graduate of West Virginia University with a BS in Journalism/Public Relations, Balchan has been active and successful in the ARM Industry since 2000. Prior to joining Stirling Capital Management, Balchan was an Independent Business Development Consultant for Creditors Interchange Receivable Management, LLC and a Deal Administrator for eCAST, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bear, Stearns & Co., Inc.

Holly Balchan can now be reached at 716-341-5362 or via email at holly.balchan@stirlingcm.com.
